

Hybrid views are possible.
E.g. Trinity origin + Non-trinitarian structure, nature, and oneness.
Logical inconsistencies may result.

Different views of God:

CLASSICAL THEISM

NON-TRINITARIAN

SEMI-ARIANISM

TRITHEISM

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST

MODALISM

Eternity → “Origin” →	Timelessly Self-Existent	Timelessly Self-Existent	Eternally Self-Existent	Eternally Self-Existent Eternally Self-Existent Eternally Self-Existent	Eternally Self-Existent Eternally Self-Existent Eternally Self-Existent	Eternally Self-Existent
PERSONS/ALITIES F=Father, S=Son, HS=Holy Spirit	F S HS 3 Persons	F S HS 3 Persons (If HS isn't the Son)	F S HS = Power/Presence of Father/Son	F S HS 3 Persons or “beings”	F S HS	S = F = HS
Structure →	Coequal in Nature and work	Coequal in nature Eternal subordination in role to the Father	Coequal in nature Eternal subordination in role to the Father	Coequal in nature Interim reciprocated subordination to roles for plan of redemption	Coequal in nature Interim reciprocated subordination to roles for plan of redemption	N/A
NATURE (Existence)	1 1 nature in 3 persons	F S 3 persons in 2 natures	F S 2 persons in 2 natures	F S HS 3 persons 3 natures	1 3 persons 1 nature	1 3 personas 1 nature
Oneness in →	nature attributes character purpose work	character purpose	character purpose	attributes character purpose	nature attributes character purpose work	N/A
GOD	The one nature is God	The Father is exclusively God	The Father is exclusively God	Each of the three is fully God, yet united so closely as to be one God, though separate in nature	Three persons share the same existence as God	One being puts on a different “mask” as needed
Notes →	Catholicism. Timelessness with generation and procession are imported from Platonic philosophy.	Arianism if generation is not eternal.	A Popular variation of non-trinitarianism.	The conflation of persons/beings with nature effectively results in three gods.	Most common Biblical/EGW perspective layout.	Viewed as a heresy by nearly everyone in history.